INTRODUCTION

Sorting Some Of The Wrights Of Southern Virginia is a multipart project. Each part will discuss a separate Wright family, beginning with the oldest known ancestor of that line. This work William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County), His Wife ( ) Wright, And His Descendants is Part XI of the project.

The material for this project is organized in four sections. The first is the text, the second is the descendants charts, the third is the sources, and the fourth is a set of appendices.

The text provides full and literal transcriptions of all documents and sources found for the individuals discussed, as well as explanations of the significance of documents and the evidentiary logic for conclusions that are not obvious on their face. Five generations of descendants are discussed. Every researcher has faced the frustration of an asserted identification without a source reference or explanation of the conclusion or with a source reference which when consulted turns out to say something different than what was claimed. By providing full transcriptions of sources, I hope to allow the reader to reach their own conclusions regarding the identifications given and avoid the need to search out the source, even though this adds considerably to the length of the text. When secondary sources are relied on, the person providing the information is listed.

The descendants charts are organized with the oldest ancestor in the first column and each descendant from that ancestor in the remaining columns, to the extent known. The basic data of date and place of birth, marrgage, residence, and death are given for each individual. The sources for that information are also given for each individual, using code numbers to the source list.

The source list provides first a chronological listing of sources as they were found or consulted and second a listing by geographic area and type of source, such as birth records or death records. The chronological listing evolved from my early years in research and mistaken efforts at coding the source. By the time I realized the inappropriateness of the coding format, there was too much information in a pre-computer era to correct the early references. The reader is left with the result and my apology.

The appendices list all of the known Wright documents for a particular type of record for a county in chronological order and include an identification of the Wright named in the record. These appendices have been published separately by Heritage Books, Inc., and to date have included Wright birth, marriage, personal property tax, census, deed, land tax, death, cemetery, and probate records for Bedford, Franklin, Campbell, and Prince Edward Counties, Virginia, the City of Lynchburg, and Appomattox, Amherst, Nelson, and Rockbridge Counties, Virginia. Other counties will follow in the future. The appendices allow a cross referencing of the known records to the person discussed. This is to avoid having the same record cited for two different persons who happened to have the same name and to provide a list of documents that have not been associated with any person and which might be inconsistent with asserted identifications.

The numerous Wrights found in the same geographic areas necessitated an identification system to keep their identities separated. The system selected early on was to list a person by their year of death and county of residence at death, when known. For example, "1769 George Wright of Essex County" indicates that this was the George Wright who died in 1769 in Essex County. If no state is listed after the county, the state is Virginia; counties in states other than Virginia have a state listed after the county, as in "1876 William S. Wright of Highland County, Ohio." A parenthetical after the name indicates an identification of the person when a place of death is not yet known, as in "John Wright (Goochland County Carpenter)." A county in parentheses after the name indicates the county with which that person was most identified when no evidence of the place of death has yet been found, as in "William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County)."

No work of this size is done without help. My friend Diane Smith has typed and revised over 100,000 pages of documents, text, and descendants charts, often from barely readable copies and nearly indecipherable handwriting. Together we have gone through almost every iteration of word processing program and media, including IBM, Wang, and Word Perfect, magnetic cards, 6½" floppies, 3½" floppies, flashsticks, and DOS. The evolution of technologies that are incompatible or no longer accessible supports my faith in the printed word.

Numerous other researchers have shared their records and research, often providing the breakthrough which permitted the identification of a person. I have attempted to recognize those fellow researchers by identifying their contributions in the text and source list. The quotations from published works are made with the permission of the author.

And my wife has patiently accepted the piling up of boxes of documents, notebooks filled with documents, text, descendants charts, and appendices and a work table piled with work to be done.

Thank you to all for your help and patience and I hope the reader finds that this work justifies the effort.

This is a work in process and I would be most interested in receiving additional information about any of the persons identified in these records in order to correct any errors or expand on the information given.

Descendants Chart

XI. William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County), His Wife ( ) Wright, And His Descendants

The parents of William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County) have not as yet been identified. Nevertheless, William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County) was related to 1833 William Wright of Orange County and his second wife Rachel (Perry) Wright. This is based on Y-DNA matches between (1) Donald Eugene Wright, a descendant of William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County) and Wright DNA Project Kit #30753, and (2) Ernest H. Wright, a descendant of 1833 William Wright of Orange County and Wright DNA Project Kit #25416.

The line of descent for Donald Eugene Wright is as follows:

1) William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County, Virginia),
2) 1859 Charles Wright of Decatur County, Indiana,
3) 1887 William S. Wright of Gilmer County, West Virginia,
4) 1912 John W. Wright of Gilmer County, West Virginia,
5) 1895 William D. Wright of Gilmer County, West Virginia,
6) 1918 Grover Wright of Gilmer County, West Virginia,
7) 2004 Thurman Woodrow Wright of York County, Pennsylvania,
8) Donald Eugene Wright.

The line of descent for Ernest H. Wright is as follows:

1) 1833 William Wright of Orange County,
2) Alexander P. Wright of Kanawha County, West Virginia
3) 1894 William Penn Wright of Putnam County, West Virginia,
4) 1919 James Henry Wright of Kanawha County, West Virginia,
5) Stapleton Crutchfield Wright,
6) James S. Wright,
7) Harry Hamilton Wright, and
8) Ernest H. Wright.

Their Y-DNA is part of Haplogroup I1 and matches at 24 of 25 markers, indicating a common ancestor in the relatively recent past.

Another descendant of 1833 William Wright of Orange County is Russell Thomas Wright, Kit #124101, whose Y-DNA also matches at 24 of 25 markers with Donald Eugene Wright. Russell Thomas Wright's posted line of descent is as follows:

1) 1833 William Wright of Orange County,
2) 1835 George Bledsoe Wright of Shelby County, Kentucky,
3) c. 1854 John Raglen Wright of Scott County, Kentucky,
4) Milton Thomas Wright,
5) James Evan Wright,
6) 1920 Charles Wright of Scott County, Kentucky,
7) 1983 George William Wright of Franklin County, Kentucky,
8) 1992 Charles Thomas Wright of Franklin County, Kentucky, and
9) Russell Thomas Wright.

Another descendant of 1833 William Wright of Orange County is Nowlin Wayne Wright, Kit #265847, whose Y-DNA also matches at 24 of 25 markers with Donald Eugene Wright. Novil Wayne Wright's posted line of descent is as follows:

1) 1833 William Wright of Orange County,
2) 1835 George Bledsoe Wright of Shelby County, Kentucky,
3) Benjamin Harrison Wright,
4) 1855 James Wright of Mississippi,
5) 1917 Benjamin Harrison Wright of Hill County, Texas,
6) 1942 Jasper Louis Wright of Williamson County, Texas,
7) 1973 Nowlin Vernon Wright of Bell County, Texas, and
8) Nowlin Wayne Wright.

The identification of the common ancestor of these four participants has not as yet been determined. William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County) does not appear as a descendant of either 1833 William Wright of Orange County or his father John Wright of Orange County. However, John Wright of Orange County was listed as from King William County when he first purchased 150 acres of land in Orange County on April 23, 1752, by Orange County, Virginia, Deed 12/85. A William Wright, also described as of King William County, purchased 150 acres of land adjacent to John Wright of Orange County on the same date by Orange County, Virginia, Deed. 12/87. This William Wright and his wife Mary sold their land to James Herndon in 1777 by Orange County, Virginia, Deed 17/8. As set forth below, William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County) was born probably before 1749, which would be consistent with the 1752 purchase of land by this William Wright and Mary (____) Wright. The result is that this William Wright and Mary (____) Wright might be the parents of William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County), but further research will be required to confirm this identification and to trace this couple and their family further.

The remainder of this work will set forth the documentation relating to William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County) and his descendants.

The 1782 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed three William Wrights, one of whom was 1809 William Wright of Franklin County, one of whom was listed as William Wright, Jr., and was 1830 William Wright of Franklin County, the son of 1809 William Wright of Franklin County, and the third of whom had the following household:

William Wright	1		3	7	1

This third William Wright is identified in this record and later Personal Property Tax Lists by the fairly consistent number of horses and cattle until 1786 and then by the elimination of 1809 William Wright and 1830 William Wright from the Bedford lists by the creation of Franklin County. This record indicates that William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County) was born before 1762.

On May 27, 1782, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 6/358 William Wright was appointed surveyor of the road to Poteet's Gap:

> "William Wright appointed Sur. road from the Top of the Mountain at Poteets Gap to the Fork of the Road near Francis Hollys, and the new way round Peter Wilkinsons Plantation is Established - and the way thru the sd. Plantation suppress'd - The usual Hands are Ordered to Assist the sd. Sur. in keeping the Same in good repair"

The reference to Poteet's Gap indicates that the William Wright of this listing was probably William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County), who lived in the northern part of Bedford County nearest to Poteet's Gap.

The 1783 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one of whom was 1809 William Wright of Franklin County and the other of whom had the following household:

Name	No White & Blk Tithes	Tax on Covering Horses	Whites Over 21	Blacks Over 16	Blacks under 16	Total Blacks
William Wright	1		1

No Horses	No Nett Cattle	No Wheels R Carriages	Ordinary License

In July 1783 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 7/58 William Wright was ordered to provide hands for road repair:

> "Ordered that the following hands, to witt Nicholas Davies's (hands under Johnson Watson & Martin King) William Edwards Charles Jones, William Humphreys, William Williams John Williams, James DeWitt, John Hill, Samuel Hensley Wm Wright v Benjamin Noss & Widdow Kelleys. Work under Johnson Watson Surveyor of the Road from Commertons Ferry on James River to the Road that Leads over Poteets Gap"

The reference to Poteet's Gap again indicates that the William Wright of this listing was probably William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County), who lived in the northern part of Bedford County nearest to Poteet's Gap.

In July 1783 at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Order Book 7/58 William Wright was also ordered to view the way for a new road over Poteet's Gap:

> "Order that William Williams Martin King, William Wright & Johnson Watson or any three of them do View a Bridleway from the Island ford on James River into the Road Leading Over Poteets Gap, the Nearst and Best way & make Return"

The 1784 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one of whom was listed as William Wright, Sr., and was 1809 William Wright of Franklin County and the other of whom had the following household:

The 1785 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one of whom was listed with Dudley Curl and the other of whom was probably William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County) and had the following household:

The 1787 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed only one William Wright with the following household on April 6:

The presence of a William Wright, age 16 to 21, in this William Wright household on April 6, 1787, indicates that William Wright, Jr., was born after April 6, 1766, and before April 6, 1771. As set forth below, William Wright, Jr., was listed in the 1788 Personal Property Tax List on May 26 and as over age 21, indicating a date of birth before May 26, 1767. If William Wright, Sr., was at least 18 years of age when his son William Wright, Jr., was born, then his date of birth was probably before 1749.

The 1788 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one of whom was William Wright, Sr., and the other William Wright, Jr. William Wright Sr. had the following household on April 26:

Date of recg lists from Individuals	Persons names chargeable with the Tax	No of White Male Titheables above 21	No of White males above 16 & under 21	Blacks above 16	Blacks above 12 & under 16

The marriage bond of William Wright and Ann O'Neel was dated on March 26, 1788, at Bedford County, Virginia, with David Douglas as surety and the marriage on March 27, 1788. The 1787 and 1788 Personal Property Tax Lists in conjunction with the marriage bond indicate the progression of William Wright, Jr., from his father's household to marriage and then to his own household.

The 1789 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, again listed two William Wrights, one William Wright, Sr., and the other William Wright, Jr. William Wright, Sr., had the following household on April 13:

In April 1790 at Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 10/13 the court ordered that the Overseer of the Poor bind Charles Wright, son of William Wright, to Robert Thomas:

> "Ord: that the Or Poor bind Charles Wright son of Wm Wright to Robert Thomas Accg. to Law"

Since William Wright, Jr., married only in 1788 and Charles Wright had to be more than two years old to be bound out, this record identifies Charles Wright as the son of William Wright, Sr.

In August 1790 at Bedford County, Virginia, D.B. 8/262, John Ross Dewitt executed a deed of trust to William Wright and John Hill to secure certain debts due to William Wright, Joseph Wilkinson, and John Hill:

> "This Indenture made on this __ day of August in the Year of Christ One thousand seven hundred and eighty Nine Between John Ross Dewitt of the County of Bedford of the one part & John Hill and William Wright of the same County of the other part Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the Sum of Sixteen pounds seven shillings and six pence current Money which he the said John Ross Dewitt is justly indebted to the said Joseph Wilkinson, John Hill & William Wright and honestly desire to secure and pay to them and for and in the farther consideration of the Sum of five shillings like money to the said John Ross Dewitt in hand paid by the said John Hill & William Wright at and before the Sealing and delivery of the same the receipt whereof he does hereby Acknowledge and thereof and of every part thereof does exonerate and discharge the said Joseph Wilkinson John Hill and William Wright their Heirs Executors and Administrators: he the said John Ross Dewitt has granted bargained sold and confirmed and by these presents do grant bargain sell and confirm to the said Joseph Wilkinson John Hill & William Wright their Heirs and Assigns forever One tract of land lying in Bedford County containing by Estamation One hundred and twenty three Acres with all the appurtenances belonging or in any wise Appertaining to the premises hereby granted or intended to be granted and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders and all services benefits and profits of the said land and premises and all my Rights Claims Interests and Securities relating to the same: To have and to hold the said land and other premises unto the said John Hill and William

Since the family of William Wright, Sr., was connected to the Hill family and Eubank family by marriage and there was no other William Wright in Bedford County at this time of the appropriate age to be the trustee on this deed of trust, this William Wright was William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County).

In September 1790 at Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 10/39 William Wright was ordered to join road repair on the road from Read Creek to the top of the mountain:

> "Ordered that William Fowler, Elisha Fowler, Mordecai Bruce David Bruces Hands & William Wright do work under Charles Carter Sur. Rd. from Read Creek to the top of the Mountain in Addition to the Hands formerly allotted sd. Surveyor"

Since William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County) lived in the northern part of the county and Read Creek is located there as well, this was clearly a reference to him.

The 1791 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one William Wright, Sr., and the other William Wright, Jr. William Wright, Sr., had the following household on May 20:

			Blacks ab. 16	Blacks bet: 12 & 16	Horses
March 17	William Wright Senr	1

In October 1792 at Bedford County, Virginia, Court Order Book 10/185 William Wright was appointed surveyor of the road from Davis's Ferry to Poteets Road:

> "Ordered that William Wright be appointed Surveyor of the Rd. in the room of John Hill from Davis's Ferry to Poteets Road"

The 1793 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed only one William Wright with the following household on July 5:

		No Tithes	Bs. over 12	Horses
July 5	William Wright	1		2

C. Wheels	O. License	B. Tables	No. Studs	Rates of Covering

The property matches that of William Wright, Jr., in the 1792 list, but since William Wright, Sr., apparently stayed in Bedford County and it is not clear that William Wright, Jr., did so, I think this was probably a listing for William Wright, Sr.

The 1794 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights, one of whom was in the Matthew Pate or Southern District and was 1854 William Wright of Campbell County, son of 1814 John Wright of Bedford County, and the other of whom was listed in the John Leftwich or Northern District and had the following property:

The 1797 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed William Wright with the following property:

Names	No White Tithes	No Black Tithes	Total of Blacks over 12 Years	Horses &c &c	No. of carrige wheels Odinary Licence, Billard Tables, Stud Horses & Rates of covering
William Wright	2			2

The listing of two white tithes indicates that another son of William Wright, Sr., had attained age 21 and lends support to the conclusion that this was the household of William Wright, Sr., and not the household of William Wright, Jr.

The 1798 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights in the John Leftwich District, one of whom was probably William Wright, Jr., and the other of whom was probably William Wright, Sr., with the following household:

William Wright	3	1	1	4

Ordinary License	Studs	Rates of Covering in Dollars	Amount of Tax in Dollars and Cents

The listing of three white tithables for this household confirms that it was that of William Wright, Sr., and not that of his son William Wright, Jr.

On August 26, 1801, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers Elizabeth Roach gave her deposition in connection with the suit of Wade v. Dewitt:

"Bedford County Sct

Pursuant to a dedimus to us directed (and hereunto annexed) from Bedford County Court, we have this 26th day of August 1801 at the Courthouse of said County proceeded to take the deposition of Elizabetion Roach in a suit depending in the Court of the said County between David Wade Pltff and Thomas Dewitt Richard Wright & Charles Wright Defts the said David Wade Thomas Dewitt & Charles Wright being present - The said Elizabeth Roach being duly sworn deposeth and saith that sometime ago the Fence of the field belonging to her father the Pltff in which was some Tobacco and some Turnips growing, was thrown down and a number of Cattle and Hogs got in, who destroyed the greatest part of the turnips and broke a quantity of the tobacco - That about the same time she met the Deft Dewit with some wood on a carriage which she believes had been drove thro the field - that at another time she saw Richard Wright and another person in the field, whom she supposes to be either Charles or William Wright, one of whom was riding a horse the other walking, for the purposes as she believes of procuring wood for Thomas Dewitt, that she saw some sawed timber at the house of William Wright at whose house the Defendant Dewit then boarded which timber she believes belonged to the Pltff - Question by the Defendant How many whole planks did you see at W Wrights? Answer Three which was said to belong to Dewitt, also several pieces of plank. And further saith not.

Taken before us at the time place first above written

Isaac Otey
Andrew Donald"

This record indicates that Thomas Dewitt was living at William Wright's residence, that Richard Wright, Charles Wright, and William Wright were closely associated and probably lived together at William Wright's residence.

The 1802 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed one William Wright in the John Leftwich District with the following household:

On April 26, 1802, at Bedford County, Virginia, County Court Loose Papers William Wright joined Richard Wright and Charles Wright in executing a surety bond to stay proceedings by David Wade on his complaint against Richard Wright and Charles Wright for damages for trespass:

The 1803 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed one William Wright in the John Leftwich District with the following household on March 30:

Richard Wright appeared for the first time in the Personal Property Tax Lists in 1803. That first appearance of Richard Wright in the 1803 Personal Property Tax List and the drop in tithables in the William Wright household from three to two white tithables indicates the progression of son Richard from his father's household to his own household.

The 1804 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed one William Wright in the John Leftwich District with the following household on June 9:

June 9	William Wright	2	1	1	5

Charles Wright appeared for the first time in the Personal Property Tax List in 1804. The first appearance of Charles Wright in the 1804 Personal Property Tax List and the continued listing of two tithables in the William Wright household indicates the progression of son Charles from his father's household to his own household and the attainment of another son of the age of 21 or, as will be set forth below, the return of William Wright, Jr., to the household.

The 1805 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights in the John Leftwich District, one William Wright, Jr., and the other William Wright with the following household:

	William Wright	1	1	1	2

Ordinary Licence	Stud Horses	Rates of Covering in dolls	Coaches Charriots &c	Other Riding 4 Wheeled riding Carriages	Other Carriages with two Wheels

The drop in the number of tithables in the William Wright, Sr., household from two to one and the reappearance of William Wright, Jr., in the lists indicate that William Wright, Jr., was probably in the William Wright, Sr., household in 1804 and established his own household in 1805.

The 1806 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights in the John Leftwich District, one William Wright, Jr., and the other William Wright with the following household on April 12:

Date of receiving lists From individuals	Persons names Chargeable with the tax	White Males above 16 years	Blacks above 12 years old	Blacks above 16 years old	Horses Mares Colts & Mules

The 1807 Personal Property Tax List for Bedford County, Virginia, listed two William Wrights in the John Leftwich District, one William Wright, Jr., and the other William Wright with the following household:

On February 23, 1807, the Bedford County, Virginia, County Court directed the surveying of a road which would pass William Wright's land:

the return of a View of a road made by order of Bedford February Court 1807 for summonses to issue to the Tenants thro' whose land the said Viewers reported the road from opposite William Wright's to Waugh's ferry. After 1825 the Bedford County, Virginia, Personal Property Tax Lists did not list Charles Wright.

There was a Charles Wright who resided in Rockbridge County, Virginia, and was listed in the 1792, 1793, 1794, 1797, 1798, 1801, 1803, 1805, 1807, 1810, 1812, and 1813 Personal Property Tax Lists and who married Dorothy McLaughlin on December 17, 1812, at Rockbridge County, Virginia. No Charles Wright was listed in the Rockbridge County Personal Property Tax Lists from 1814 until 1826, when a Charles Write was again listed. This indicates that the first Charles Wright had moved from Rockbridge County and a second Charles Wright moved into Rockbridge County in 1826. The first Charles Wright was probably the Charles Wright listed in the 1850 Census for Carter County, Kentucky, as aged 64 and born in Virginia and with wife Dorothea Wright, aged 65, born in Virginia, and deaf.

Charles Wright has not as yet been located in the 1850 Census.

The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Charles Wright in the James Pavy household on July 10, 1860, in Clay Township:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Real Estate	Personal Property	Born
James Pavy	48	M	Farmer	2800	500	Ky

Jane Pavy	15	F				Ind
James Pavy	13	M				Ind
Richard Right	4	M				Ind
Charles Right	75	M				Virginia
Thomas McCracken	19	M				Virginia

This record indicates that Charles Wright was born in about 1785. His relationship to the James Pavy family has not as yet been determined.

In his emails dated July 16 and August 3, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Charles Wright in Hebron Cemetery, Decatur County, Indiana, which listed the following:

> "Charles Wright
> Born
> Jan 1 1783
> Died
> Sept 15 1859"

In his email dated March 28, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a biography of Charles Wright from the Atlas Of Decatur County, Indiana, published in 1882, which stated:

> "Charles Wright, Deceased
> This gentleman came from Buford Co., Virginia to Clay Township in 1842. His wife, Mary, died in 1828, and he lived with his children until his death, in the Autumn of 1860. He was not a member of any church, though leaning in sympathy toward the Baptist denomination to which his wife belonged, and of which she was a consistent member for many years previous to her death. Mrs. Wright was a daughter of Ambrose and Mary Eubank. Mr. Wright's declining years were made as pleasant as kind regards, prompted by filial affection, could indicate."

Although there is an inconsistency regarding the date of death of Charles Wright between the tombstone and the biography, the presence of Charles Wright in the 1860 Census indicates that the tombstone was incorrectly inscribed or, since it is worn and difficult to read, was incorrectly read and the date of death was probably September 15, 1860.

In her letter dated October 4, 2004, Jane Leighton enclosed a copy of A Genealogical And Biographical Record of Decatur County, Indiana, published probably in about 1915, which in a biographical article on Caleb Stark Wright, the son of Richard Wright, included the following:

> "Caleb Stark Wright was born on the farm on which he still lives, in Clay township, Decatur county, Indiana, five miles southwest of the town of Greensburg, sixty-three years ago . . . . He is the son of Richard and Lovica (Stark) Wright , pioneers of Clay township, the former of whom was born in Rockbridge county, Virginia, in 1821 and died at his home in this county in 1884. When about twenty-one years of age Richard Wright came to Decatur county from Virginia, settling in Clay township, near the village of Liberty. . . . . The Wright family is of English origin and Richard Wright was the son of Charles Wright, the latter of whom came to this county from Virginia some time after his son, Richard, had located here and spent the rest of his life in the home of his son, dying when Caleb S., the subject of this sketch, was about seven years of age."

The connections of Richard Wright with Rockbridge County and his move to Decatur County, Indiana, in about 1842, the same year that Charles Wright disappeared from the Rockbridge County, Virginia, records, indicate that Richard's father Charles Wright was the same Charles Wright who resided in Bedford and Rockbridge Counties and was the son of William Wright, Sr., (Bedford County). The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, indicates that Caleb Stark Wright was born in about 1852, which indicates that Charles Wright died in about 1859. If the listing of Charles Wright in the 1860 Census was for Caleb Wright's grandfather, then that would indicate that he survived until at least July 10, 1860.

In her letter dated October 4, 2004, Jane Leighton also enclosed copies of the following genealogical cards from the Greensburg Library in Decatur County, Indiana:

The marriage record of Thomas E. Wright and Mary Jane Wallace was dated on April 3, 1835, in Rockbridge County, Virginia:

> "Know all men by these presents, That we Thomas E Wright and John Wallace are held and firmly bound unto Littleton W Tazewell Esquire, Governor or Chief Magistrate of Virginia, in the just and full sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars; to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Governor and his successors, for the use of the Commonwealth, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. The 1836 Personal Property Tax List for Rockbridge County, Virginia, listed one Thomas Wright with the following household on March 18:

	Persons Chble with tax	Slaves ab: 12	Horses &c		Amot of tax
Mar 18	Thomas Wright		2		.12

Thomas Wright was now listed in Tax List A, while Charles Wright and William S. Wright were listed in Tax List B, indicating the establishment of Thomas Wright's own household following his marriage.

The 1837 Personal Property Tax List for Rockbridge County, Virginia, listed Thomas E. Wright in List A with the following household on February 6:

	Persons Chble with tax	Slaves ab: age of 12 ys	Horses &c		Amot of tax $ ¢
feby 6	Thomas E Wright		3		.18

The listing of Thomas E. Wright in List A identifies the Thomas Wright of the 1835 and 1836 Personal Property Tax Lists as Thomas E. Wright.

The 1838 and later Personal Property Tax Lists for Rockbridge County, Virginia, did not list a Thomas E. Wright.

The 1840 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed one Thomas Wright with the following household:

Males	Age	Females	Age
2	20-30	1	20-30
2	0-5	1	15-20

As will be set forth below, this record is consistent with the known information for Thomas E. Wright and this listing was probably for him.

The 1850 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Thomas A. Wright with the following household on August 20, 1850:

Although this record lists Thomas E. Wright as Thomas A. Wright, the 1860 Census set forth below makes clear that it was Thomas E. Wright. This record indicates that Thomas E. Wright was born in about 1811 and that Mary Jane (Wallace) Wright was born in about 1818.

The marriage record of Thomas E. Wright and Clarinda Angeline Dickson was dated on January 4, 1854, in Decatur County, Indiana:

In his email dated August 3, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Thomas E. Wright from the Hebron Cemetery, Decatur County, Indiana, which listed the following:

The 1850 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed George W. Wright in the Thomas A. Wright household on August 20, 1850, and his age as 14 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1836.

George W. Wright has not as yet been located in the 1850 Census.

The marriage record of George W. Wright and Elizabeth Ketcham was dated on October 28, 1861, in Decatur County, Indiana:

Indiana, Marriages, 1780-1992 available from FamilySearch.org listed the marriage of Elizabeth Wright and F. M. Trisler on October 5, 1878, in Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana. This record indicates that George W. Wright had probably died before October 5, 1878.

The 1880 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed F. Trisler with the following household in June 1880:

This record indicates that Elizabeth (Ketcham) (Wright) Trisler was born in about 1851. The listing of Frederich, G. F., and F. J. Wright as stepsons identifies this household as the same as that of George Wright in 1870 and indicates that George W. Wright had died before the second marriage of Elizabeth (Ketcham) (Wright) Trisler on October 5, 1878.

In his GenForum postings dated May 16, 1999, and February 14, 2004, Howard E. Grider stated that George W. Wright was a son of 1876 Thomas E. Wright of Bartholomew County, Indiana, and Mary Jane (Wallace) Wright, was born about 1836 at Virginia, married Elizabeth Ketchum on October 28, 1861, at Decatur County, Indiana, and died in 1890, that Elizabeth (Kethcum) Wright was born about 1845 at Ohio, and that George W. Wright and Elizabeth (Ketchum) Wright had the following children:

The John Wright of this record was probably John M. Wright, the son of 1876 Thomas E. Wright of Bartholomew County, Indiana. Thomas E. Wright's sister was Lucy (Wright) Hickman, whose son was Ambrose E. Hickman.. The result is that John M. Wright and A. E. Hickman were cousins, which would make it logical for John M. Wright to be a laborer in the A. E. Hickman household. However, the absence of the middle initial M from John Wright's name means that further research will be required to confirm this identification.

In his GenForum postings dated May 16, 1999, and February 14, 2004, Howard E. Grider stated that John M. Wright was a son of 1876 Thomas E. Wright of Bartholomew County, Indiana, and Mary Jane (Wallace) Wright, and was born in about 1846 in Indiana.

The date of marriage of Lucy Wright and Jacob Hickman of December 11, 1828, is inconsistent with the date of birth of Margaret Elizabeth (Hickman) Sale of August 3, 1827. There are three possible explanations of this discrepancy: 1) the date of birth was incorrectly listed and Margaret was actually born sometime after the marriage of Lucy and Jacob; 2) the date of birth is correct and Margaret was the child of Lucy and Jacob and was born before they formally married; and 3) the date of birth is correct and Margaret was an illegitimate child of Lucy by someone other than Jacob and was treated and raised as a child of Lucy and Jacob. Further research will be required to determine which of these explanations is the correct one, but in the absence of contrary evidence, the records available indicate that Margaret Elizabeth (Hickman) Sale was a daughter of Lucy (Wright) Hickman and Jacob Hickman.

Hickman, age 24 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1824. Since Jacob Hickman married Lucy A. Wright in 1828, if Phelander D. Hickman of the will is the same person as Philander A. Hickman of the 1850 Census, then he would have been a child of the first marriage of Jacob Hickman. Further research will be required to determine whether this identification is correct or not and whether this was a child of Jacob Hickman's first or second marriage.

f. Melinda K. Or Belinda Catherine (Hickman) Myers And Her Husband Benjamin Myers

Melinda K. or Belinda Catherine (Hickman) Myers was a daughter of Lucy A. (Wright) Hickman and Jacob Hickman. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2], Lucy[3])

The will of Jacob Hickman dated June 16, 1847, and probated on June 4, 1849, at Rockbridge County, Virginia, W. B. _/_ listed Berlinda Cathren Hickman as one of the children of his second marriage:

Although listed as Berlinda Cathren, this seems clearly to be Belinda Catherine.

The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Benjamin Myers with the following household on July 7, 1860:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate
Benjamin Myers	26	M		Day Labor
Belinda C. Myers	19	F

Value of Personal Property	Place of Birth	Married Within Year	Attended School Within Year	Cannot Read & Write	Deaf Dumb Blind Insane etc.

g. John William Hickman

John William Hickman was a son of Lucy A. (Wright) Hickman and Jacob Hickman. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2], Lucy[3])

The will of Jacob Hickman dated June 16, 1847, and probated on June 4, 1849, at Rockbridge County, Virginia, W. B. _/_ listed John William Hickman as one of the children of his second marriage:

> ". . . . I gave and bequeath the residue of my estate for the support of my presant wife and our children Robert Mc.(?), Embrose E. Mary Jain Jacob S. Phelander D., Berlinda Cathren, John William until the youngest is of lawful age and then the residue after support as aforesaid to give the children a good inglish education and the remaining part of my estate to be equally devided between my presant wife and our children as afore named hereby gaving and conforming the same to each of them and thair heirs for ever. . . . ."

h. Charles E. Or S. Hickman And His Wife Louticia (____) Hickman

Charles E. or S. Hickman was a son of Lucy A. (Wright) Hickman and Jacob Hickman. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2], Lucy[3])

The will of Jacob Hickman dated June 16, 1847, and probated on June 4, 1849, at Rockbridge County, Virginia, W. B. _/_ did not list Charles E. Hickman as one of the children of his second marriage:

> ". . . . I gave and bequeath the residue of my estate for the support of my presant wife and our children Robert Mc.(?), Embrose E. Mary Jain Jacob S. Phelander D., Berlinda Cathren, John William until the youngest is of lawful age and then the residue after support as aforesaid to give the children a good inglish education and the remaining part of my estate to be equally devided between my presant wife and our children as afore named hereby gaving and conforming the same to each of them and thair heirs for ever. . . . ."

As set forth below, Charles E. Hickman was born in about 1850 and, therefore, would not have been alive when the will was written in 1847 and was probably a posthumous child of Jacob Hickman.

The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Charles E. Hickman in the Lucy Hickman household on July 10, 1860, and his age as 10 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1850.

In her letter dated October 4, 2004, Jane Leighton enclosed family group sheets which stated that Charles S. Hickman was a son of Lucy A. (Wright) Hickman and Jacob Hickman, was born in 1848 in Rockbridge County, Virginia, and married Louticia ____.

i. Possibly Josephine (Hickman) Davis And Her Husband Elisha Davis

Josephine (Hickman) Davis was possibly a daughter of Lucy A. (Wright) Hickman and Jacob Hickman. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2], Lucy[3])

The will of Jacob Hickman dated June 16, 1847, and probated on June 4, 1849, at Rockbridge County, Virginia, W. B. _/_ did not list a Josephine Hickman as one of the children of his second marriage:

> ". . . . I gave and bequeath the residue of my estate for the support of my presant wife and our children Robert Mc.(?), Embrose E. Mary Jain Jacob S.

Phelander D., Berlinda Cathren, John William until the youngest is of lawful age and then the residue after support as aforesaid to give the children a good inglish education and the remaining part of my estate to be equally devided between my presant wife and our children as afore named hereby gaving and conforming the same to each of them and thair heirs for ever. . . . ."

As set forth below, Josephine Hickman was born in aout 1852 or 1854, well after the death of Jacob Hickman, and was probably not one of his children, but was a child of Lucy (Wright) Hickman by some other person.

The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Josephine Hickman in the Lucy Hickman household on July 10, 1860, and her age as 6 and born in Virginia, indicating a date of birth in about 1854.

The 1870 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Elisha Davis with the following household on August 4, 1870, in Clay Township:

Lucy A. Hickman	58	F	W	Domestic servant
Winnie Wright	14	F	W

Personal Property	Born
	Kentucky
	Virginia
	Virginia

The presence of Lucy A. Hickman in the household identifies this Josephine Davis as Josephine (Hickman) Davis and indicates that Josephine Hickman had married Elisha Davis before August 4, 1870.

3. 1887 William S. Wright Of Gilmer County, West Virginia, His Wife Anne Or Angelina Or Nancy L. (Tomlinson) Wright, And His Descendants

1887 William S. Wright of Gilmer County, West Virginia, was a son of 1860 Charles Wright of Decatur County, Indiana, and Mary "Polly" (Eubank) Wright. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2])

There is no direct evidence that William S. Wright was a son of Charles Wright and Polly (Eubank) Wright, but the circumstantial evidence is persuasive. First, William S. Wright was born in 1812, an appropriate time to be a son of Charles Wright. The 1820 Census for Bedford County, Virginia, listed four sons in the Charles Wright household aged 0 to 10 years old. Second, William S. Wright was born in Amherst County, Virginia, and Charles Wright resided in 1812 in Bedford County, Virginia, in a portion very close to the Amherst County border. Third, the naming evidence for the children strongly suggests a family relationship:

Child Of William S. Wright	Person Named For
Charles Wright	William S. Wright's father Charles Wright
John W. Wright	William S. Wright's aunt's husband John Waters
Ambrose Eubank Wright	William S. Wright's mother's father Ambrose Eubank
Richard Wright	William S. Wright's uncle Richard Wright

The similarity of the names is striking and indicates that William S. Wright was probably a son of Charles Wright and Polly (Eubank) Wright.

The marriage record of William Wright and Anne Tomlinson was dated on February 17, 1834, in Amherst County, Virginia:

> "Know All Men By These Presents, That we William Wright and Ambrose Tomlinson are held and firmly bound unto John Floyd, Esq. Governor or Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the just and full sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, current money of Virginia, to be paid to the said Governor and his successors, for the use of the said Commonwealth; for the payment whereof, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 17th day of February 1834 and in the 58th year of the Commonwealth.

The Condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas a marriage is shortly intended to be had and solemnized between the above bound William Wright and Anne Tomlinson of the county of Amherst. Now, if there is no lawful cause to obstruct the said marriage, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

William Wright
Amr Tomlinson"

As will be set forth below, the wife of William S. Wright was Angeline or Nancy L. Wright and the similarity of Anne and Angeline for her given name suggests that this was the marriage of William S. Wright. In addition, their first child was born in 1835, which is consistent with an 1834 marriage and William S. Wright's father had resided in Amherst County prior to 1826.

Frances (Wright) Beets was a daughter of 1860 Charles Wright of Decatur County, Indiana, and Mary "Polly" (Eubank) Wright. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2])

The marriage record of Frances Wright, daughter of Charles Wright, and Daniel Beets was dated on February 19, 1833, in Rockbridge County, Virginia:

> "Know all men by these presents that we Daniel Beets and Charles Wright are held and firmly bound unto John Floyd Esqr. Governor or chief magistrate of the commonwealth of Virginia in the just and full sum of one hundred and fifty dollars well and truly to be made to the said governor and his successors for the use of the commonwealth we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly, by these presents. If Frances Wright was at least 16 years of age at the time of her marriage, then her date of birth would be probably before 1817. The 1830 Census for Rockbridge County, Virginia, listed Charles Wright with two sons and one daughter born between 1810 and 1815 and one daughter born between 1815 to 1820. Since his daughter Lucy A. (Wright) Hickman was born in about 1811, this indicates that Frances (Wright) Beets was probably born between 1815 and 1817.

The 1840 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Daniel Beets with the following household:

After he became of age he worked out by the month at low wages until he was about 26 years of age, when he established his household by uniting in marriage with Miss Lucy, daughter of Caleb and Anna Y. Stark; they had nine children, five of whom are living. Soon after his marriage, Mr. Wright rented a farm and commenced life as a tiller of the soil on his own account; in 1848 he moved on to the eighty acres which had been deeded to him & here he now reside; since then he has added 80 cares more, by purchase, and these together have been brought to a high state of improvement, forming one of the best farms in Clay township.

> Mr. and Mrs. Wright have a beautiful home and are pleasantly situated in the midst of a good rural neighborhood. He is a Democrat in politics, though never an advocate and supporter of human slaver; he is not a strict adherent to the principle of "party wright or wrong", but sustains as best he can, all measures which bid fair to promote the public good. He has served as Trustee of his Township and that with credit to himself and his constituents"

In his email dated March 21, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a copy of the obituary of Luvicy Wright published on March 26, 1884, in the Greensburg Decatur News:

"Obituary

Luvicy Wright, wife of Richard Wright, was born in Henry county, Ky., June 15, 1822, and died March 18, 1884, aged 62 years, nine months and three days. In an early day, she, with her parents and their family, came to Indiana, settling in Decatur county near the town of Adams, where her parents lived until their death.

Sister Wright had early religious impressions, being converted in 1830, and joined the Hebron Baptist church, which, at that time, held its services at the house of Phillip Starks, her uncle, near Adams, which was common in those early days. Her religious life embraces a period of 45 years, thus exceeding the average of human life. During all those years she has lived a most devoted and consistent christian life. Her's was no superficial piety; it was of a modest king, but even, uniform, practical and constant. She was faithful in the performance of her christian duties.

Although she possessed a feeble body, yet, when health permitted, she was always in her place in the meetings of her church, and appreciated the privilege of the means of grace, thus setting an example before her family and her neighbors worthy of their faithful imitation in days of so much formality and ____ religious life. Her christian devotion, with that of her companion, was rewarded in this life by seeing all her children reared to respectability in society, members of the church of our blessed Lord, and we hope, earnest christians. Sister Wright was married to Richard Wright, who now survives her, September 4th, 1845, with whom she lived pleasantly and devotedly until she was called from his companionship to that of her Master, and the loved ones who ere "watching and waiting for her." Though the loss to Brother Wright and his children is very great, her gain is much greater. Our sister was the mother of nine children, four having died in infancy, and thus preceding her in the heavenly kingdom, and five are now living to mourn the loss of a true mother.

To them we would say, follow her as she followed Christ. Brother and Sister Wright have worked hard to secure a home for themselves and their children, and had succeeded in their desires in this regard, and retired to Greensburg in order that they might spend the remainder of their natural lifetime in enjoying what honest industry had yielded of this world's goods, and rest from the weary toil of years gone by, and enjoy themselves socially and religiously, and look and wait for their home above. Just as these arrangements were consumated, and they had entered into the hope of their realization, the Master called her unto that home which "hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God," and the second time within a few weeks, this home has been robbed of a wife and mother. While these bitter potions are pressed to the lips of father and children, there is an antidote, and it is found in communion with God. Jesus was the "resurrection and the life," and when "he shall appear," those who trust in him "shall be like him, for they shall see him as he is." "Comfort ye, one another with these words." At the time of her death Sister Wright was a member of the Liberty Baptist church, located six miles southwest of Greensburg. I believe I speak the sentiment of the membership of the church and the citizens where she has spent the greater part of her married life when I say she was a true and devoted christian; a pure and obliging neighbor, and an intelligent and living mother. With these convictions of her true character and worth, we commit body to the grave and her "spirit to God, who gave it," with the firm belief in the resurrection of the human body, and reunion with the spirit in a state of perfect bliss. In his email dated August 3, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of Richard Wright from the Hebron Cemetery, Decatur County, Indiana, which listed the following:

"Richard Wright
Died
August 10, 1884
Aged
65 yrs. 4 mos. 8 dys."

This record indicates that Richard Wright was born on April 2, 1819.

In his email dated March 21, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a copy of the obituary of Richard Wright published on August 27, 1884, in the Greensburg Decatur News:

"In Memoriam

Deacon Richard Wright was born in Rockbridge county, Va., April 2, 1819. He died Aug 10th, 1884, being sixty-five years, four months and eight days old.

He came to Indiana at the age of twenty one, making this his home until the time of his death. He was joined in marriage to Luvicy Stark in 1845, and they lived pleasantly until her death, which occurred only five months prior to his – being March 18th, 1884. Deacon Wright made profession of faith in Christ in 1855 and united with the Liberty Baptist Church, and was baptised by the venerable Joab Stout. Deacon Wright, from the time of his conversion until death, lived a consistent Christian, ever prompt in his duties, and liberal in his support of the cause of Christ. In 1881 he was elected deacon of the church, and he served the church faithfully and efficiently until he was called to lay down his armor and take up the crown.

Bro. Wright was once honored with the office of Township Trustee, and has always been a noted citizen of the county. He was an aggressive man, believing that the motto of the world is ever "Onward". The subject of this sketch leaves behind three sons and two daughters, all grown, and all citizens of this county save one daughter, Mrs. McGee, who lives in Iowa. The children were all present during the sickness anad death of their father. They hoped to have their father remain with them as they ____ in his presence and his council; but a wise providence has ordered otherwise, so they are left to fight life's battle alone. No! They are not alone. Their parents, though dead, "speak" to them in no uncertain sound. Their faithfulness calls upon their children to take up the work that they laid down, and carry it forward as they did.

The remains of Bro. Wright were followed to their resting place at Adams by an unusually long procession, embracing citizens from various callings of life; thus showing the high regard and esteem in which he was held by the people.

Thus it may be said of him,

"Life's work well done
Life's race well run
Life's ____ well won"

In his email dated May 6, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a copy of the biography of John T. Myers from History Of Decatur County, Indiana, Its People, Industires And Institutions, by Lewis A. Harding, published in 1915, which stated in part as follows:

". . . . In this connection the life and works of John T. Myers, a well-known farmer of Clay township, this county, should be mentioned, he being the owner of a productive farm of fifty-six and three-quarters acres, a part of the old Richard Wright homestead.

Reared on a farm in this county, John T. Myers was married in 1875 to Minnie Wright, daughter of Richard and Luvicia (Stark) Wright, the former of whom was a native of Rockbridge county, Virginia, who came to this county in pioneer times. He settled in Clay township on a farm that his father had entered from the government, the same being the one now owned by John T. Myers. A successful farmer, he spent the rest of his days in Clay township and his word was known to be as good as his bond. He was a member of the Democratic party and was elected trustee of Clay township. Religiously, he was identified with the Baptist church, having been one of the founders of the church at Liberty; in fact, having given the ground upon which the church was built, and was also one of the trustees of that church and a deacon. His wife was a daughter of Caleb S. and Anne (Boone) Stark, the latter of whom was one of the characteristic women of her generation, of a strong and fearless character, a cousin of Col. Daniel Boone, of Kentucky. Luvicia Wright was a woman widely known for her charitable disposition, who was always ready to lend a helping hand to the needy. She also was a member of the pioneer Baptist church.

Of the children born to Richard and Luvicia (Stark) Wright, four are deceased. The living are Sarah L., who married Theodore McGee, of Iowa; Caleb S., of Decatur county; R. T. W., of Colorado Springs, Colorado; Minnie A., who married Mr. Myers, and Loda W., of Westport. The deceased children were Frances Catherine, Charles W., William W. and Ruth A.

In her letter dated September 22, 2004, Jane Leighton enclosed the following excerpt from History Of Decatur County, Indiana, Its People Industries And Institutions, by Lewis A. Harding, 1915, which in a biographical article on Caleb Stark Wright, the son of Richard Wright, included the following:

"Caleb Stark Wright was born on the farm on which he still lives, in Clay township, Decatur county, Indiana, five miles southwest of the town of Greensburg, sixty-three years ago and has consequently seen the greater part of the development of that section of the county and has been an active participant in the same. He is the son of Richard and Lovica (Stark) Wright , pioneers of Clay township, the former of whom was born in Rockbridge county, Virginia, in 1821 and died at his home in this county in 1884. When about twenty-one years of age Richard Wright came to Decatur county from Virginia, settling in Clay township, near the village of Liberty. The Christian church in that village now stands on the part of the farm which he bought at the time of his arrival in this county. He bought a quarter section of land which practically was in its primeval state, and in the wilderness made his home, gradually bringing the farm to a fine state of cultivation, the same now being of the very first quality. The Wright family is of English origin and Richard Wright was the son of Charles Wright, the latter of whom came to this county from Virginia some time after his son, Richard, had located here and spent the rest of his life in the home of his son, dying when Caleb S., the subject of this sketch, was about seven years of age.

Richard Wright became one of the substantial residents of Clay township and was held in very high repute in that neighborhood. He married Lovica Stark, daughter of Caleb and Anne (Boone) Stark, who came to Decatur county from Kentucky in 1826, settling in Clay township, and founding the well-known Stark family of this county, a now numerous progeny. . . . ."

This record indicates that Richard Wright moved from Rockbridge County, Virginia, to Decatur County, Indiana, in about 1842, which is consistent with his disappearance from the Rockbridge County, Virginia, records at that time. This record also indicates that Richard Wright died in 1884 at Decatur County, Indiana.

a. Sarah Luvena (Wright) McGee, Her Husband Theodore H. McGee, And Her Descendants

Sarah Luvena (Wright) McGee was a daughter of 1884 Richard Wright of Decatur County, Indiana, and Luvicia (Stark) Wright. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2], 1884 Richard[3])

The 1850 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Sarah G. Wright in the Richard Wright household on August 26, 1850, and her age as 7 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1843.

The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Sarah Right in the Richard Rright household on August 26, 1850, and her age as 13 and born in Indiana, indicating a date of birth in about 1847.

The marriage record of Sarah L. Wright and Theodore McGee was dated on December 29, 1864, in Decatur County, Indiana:

This record indicates that Theodore McGee was born in about 1836. The listing of Jane McGee as his wife and Sarah McGee as his oldest child is probably an error of the census taker, mistakenly switching the name of his wife Sarah with the name of his oldest child James and then misnaming James as Jane to give a female name to the wife. The 1880 Census set forth below correctly listed the wife as Sarah and oldest child as James.

The 1880 Census for Humboldt County, Iowa, listed Theodore McGee with the following household on June 8, 1880:

This record indicates that Caleb S. Wright was born in about 1852 and that Alpha B. (Robbins) Wright was born in about 1857.

In her letter dated September 22, 2004, Jane Leighton enclosed the following biographical sketch of Caleb Stark Wright from History Of Decatur County, Indiana, Its People, Industries And Institutions, by Lewis A. Harding, 1915:

"Caleb Stark Wright

Few men now living in Clay township, this county, have exerted a wider or more beneficent influence therein than Caleb Stark Wright, former township trustee and one of the most prosperous and progressive farmers in the western part of Decatur county. Mr. Wright has a fine farm on one hundred and fifty-three acres in Clay township, on which he has erected one of the best farm houses in this part of the state, his home being one of the pleasantest and most delightful homes thereabout. The mammoth barn and large silo, together with the other outbuildings on the place, bespeak the enterprise of the owner and attest his excellent business qualities; for Mr. Wright is of that type so often referred to as real "old southern hospitality," and their home is one of the most popular gathering places in that whole neighborhood. In his public service Mr. Wright placed Clay township under a debt of obligation which never properly can be paid and his fellow citizens hold him in the highest esteem, his counsel and advice being sought generally on matters of public concern. He is warmly interested in the educational affairs of the township and during his administration of the office of trustee devoted the most thoughtful care to the interests of the schools, it being his theory that in the education of the children none but the very best and most approved methods should be employed. It was during his administration that the fine high school building at Burney was erected and the people of Clay township are unanimous in the declaration that the schools of the township were very largely advanced by reason of his constant application of sound business principles thereto.

Broad in his views and liberal in his dealings with his fellow men, Mr. Wright has a well-deserved popularity in the part of the county in which he resides, this popularity having been proved upon the occasion of his election to the office of trustee. Though the head of the Republican ticket carried the township by a majority of about thirty-five, Mr. Wright, who stood for election on the Democratic ticket, was elected by a clear majority of twenty-seven votes, amply attesting the esteem in which he was held. The same broad business policies enter into his transactions in connection with his extensive farming interests. He believes in handling only pure bred stock and his sales of live stock prove the soundness of his judgment in this direction, his stock invariably bringing fancy prices: a policy which has proved highly profitable to him. Mr. Wright has his own gas well on his farm and the question of light and heat, so far as he is concerned, is thus effectually solved. Energetic, industrious and capable, Mr. Wright, now in the sixth decade of his life, finds himself quite well circumstanced and capable of enjoying life to the full. Full of the zest of living, he takes a close interest in current affairs and is fully informed on all matters of public concern, being a most entertaining conversationalist and a right genial gentleman.

Caleb Stark Wright was born on the farm on which he still lives, in Clay township, Decatur county, Indiana, five miles southwest of the town of Greensburg, sixty-three years ago and has consequently seen the greater part of the development of that section of the county and has been an active participant in the same. He is the son of Richard and Lovica (Stark) Wright , pioneers of Clay township, the former of whom was born in Rockbridge county, Virginia, in 1821 and died at his home in this county in 1884. When about twenty-one years of age Richard Wright came to Decatur county from Virginia, settling in Clay township, near the village of Liberty. The Christian church in that village now stands on the part of the farm which he bought at the time of his arrival in this county. He bought a quarter section of land which practically was in its primeval state, and in the wilderness made his home, gradually bringing the farm to a fine state of cultivation, the same now being of the very first quality. The Wright family is of English origin and Richard Wright was the son of Charles Wright, the latter of whom came to this county from Virginia some time after his son, Richard, had located here and spent the rest of his life in the home of his son, dying when Caleb S., the subject of this sketch, was about seven years of age.

Richard Wright became one of the substantial residents of Clay township and was held in very high repute in that neighborhood. He married Lovica Stark, daughter of Caleb and Anne (Boone) Stark, who came to Decatur county from Kentucky in 1826, settling in Clay township, and founding the well-known Stark family of this county, a now numerous progeny. . . . ."

In his email dated May 6, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a copy of the biography of John T. Myers from History Of Decatur County, Indiana, Its People, Industires And Institutions, by Lewis A. Harding, published in 1915, which stated in part as follows:

> "One of the well-recognized functions of a publication such as this is is to recognize those citizens who represent most ably the various vocations and the various spheres of human endeavor. In this connection the life and works of John T. Myers, a well-known farmer of Clay township, this county, should be mentioned, he being the owner of a productive farm of fifty-six and three-quarters acres, a part of the old Richard Wright homestead.
> John T. Wright [Myers] was born on the Myers homestead, in Clay township, this county, in 1851, the ons of William H. and Elizabeth (Annis) Myers, the former of whom was born in Kentucky, a son of George Myers, also a native of that state, who came to Decatur county in pioneer times. Frank Myers, the father of George Myers, was a soldier in the Revolutionary army, who moved to Kentucky at an early day in the settlement of that state.
> William H. Myers, who died in 1906, was a successful farmer and owned about three hundred acres of land in this county. He was a Democrat in politics, a member of the Liberty Baptist church, and was highly respected in his community. Of the nine children born to William H. and Elizabeth Myers, four,

William M., Mrs. Alice Sanders, Mrs. Elsie Sharp and Monroe M., are deceased. The living children are James A., George M., John T., Mrs. Ida May Johnson, of Indianapolis, and Merritt Elwood, of Oklahoma.

Reared on a farm in this county, John T. Myers was married in 1875 to Minnie Wright, daughter of Richard and Luvicia (Stark) Wright, the former of whom was a native of Rockbridge county, Virginia, who came to this county in pioneer times. He settled in Clay township on a farm that his father had entered from the government, the same being the one now owned by John T. Myers. . . .

Following his marriage Mr. Myers settled on a farm near Horace and has succeeded very well as a farmer; but, butter than his success in business, is the honor and respect which he enjoys in the community in which he lives. Although a stanch Democrat, politically, he has always been an independent thinker and to some extent votes independently.

To John T. and Minnie (Wright) Myers have been born four children, one of whom, Lula M., died in infancy. The living children are Charles, born in 1876, who lives in Connersville, Indiana; Frank, 1878, who lives in Clay township, this county, and Forrest M., 1889, who lives at home with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers are members of the Liberty Baptist church and their children have been reared in that faith, the family being eminently respected in that community."

7. Nancy (Wright) Laughlin And Her Husband Hugh Laughlin, Jr.

Nancy (Wright) Laughlin was a daughter of 1860 Charles Wright of Decatur County, Indiana, and Mary "Polly" (Eubank) Wright. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2])

The 1830 Census for Rockbridge County, Virginia, listed Charles Wright with a daughter born between 1820 and 1825 and since Nancy Wright was the last of the three daughters of Charles Wright to be married, this listing was probably for her.

The marriage record of Nancy Wright, daughter of Charles Wright, and Hugh Laughlin was dated on April 15, 1841, in Rockbridge County, Virginia:

> "Know all men by these presents, that we Hugh Laughlin Junr & Hugh Laughlin senr & Charles Wright are held and firmly bound unto John Rutherford Lieutenant & acting Governor or chief magistrate of Virginia, in the just and full sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Governor and his successors for the use of the Commonwealth we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Witness our hands and seals this 5th day of April 1841

The Condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas a marriage is shortly intended to be had and solemnized, between the above bound Hugh Laughlin Jr and Nancy Wright daughter of the above bound Charles Wright

Now if there is no lawful cause to Obstruct the said marriage, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

Time of Marriage: April 15, 1841
Place of Marriage: Rockbridge County, Virginia
Full Names of Parties Married: Nancy Wright & Hugh (Jr) Laughlin Wife's Father: Charles Minister: Joseph Spriggs, Methodist"

Rockbridge County Marriages 1778-1850 also stated that the marriage record of Nancy Wright, daughter of Charles Wright, and Hugh Laughlin, Jr., was dated on April 15, 1841, at Rockbridge County, Virginia, and the minister was James Morrison of the Presbyterian Church.

The 1850 Census for Rockbridge County, Virginia, listed Hugh Laughlin in the Charlton Seaborn household on August 17, 1850, his age as 28 and born in Ireland, indicating a date of birth in about 1822. If this was the Hugh Laughlin who married Nancy Wright, then the absence of Nancy (Wright) Laughlin from the household indicates that she may have died before August 17, 1850.

8. Probably Catharine (Wright) Eubank, Her Husband George Eubank, And Her Descendants

Catharine (Wright) Eubank was probably a daughter of 1860 Charles Wright of Decatur County, Indiana, and Mary "Polly" (Eubank) Wright. (William[1], 1860 Charles[2])

The marriage record of Catharine Wright and George Eubank was dated on May 4, 1843, in Decatur County, Indiana:

"Be it remembered, that on this day towit the twenty seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty three, the following marriage license was issued by the Clerk's Office of the Decatur Circuit Court towit,

The 1850 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed Catharine Eubank in the George Ewbank household on August 26, 1850, in Clay Township:

Name	Age	Sex	Occupation	Real Estate	Born
George Ewbank	27	M	Farmer	300	Va
Catharine Ewbank	26	F			Va
Thomas M Ewbank	6	M			Ind
John Wright	24	M			Va

This record indicates that Catharine (Wright) Eubank was born in about 1824 and that George Eubank was born in about 1823. As will be set forth below, Catherine Wright was listed as a daughter and John Wright was listed as a son of Charles Wright and Mary (Eubank) Wright and the marriage of Catharine Wright to a probable relative of her mother and the presence of John Wright in this household is supportive evidence of the identification of Catharine (Wright) Eubanks as a daughter Charles Wright.

The 1860 Census for Decatur County, Indiana, listed George Eubanks with the following household on July 9, 1860:

In his email dated August 3, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a photograph of the tombstone of George Eubank from the Hebron Cemetery, Decatur County, Indiana, which listed the following:

"George Eubank

When about twenty-one years of age, John Wright came to Decatur county from Virginia and settled in Clay township near Liberty. The Wright family is of English origin. John Wright was the son of Charles Wright, who came to this county from Virginia some time after his son, John and located here. Luvenia Stark was the daughter of Caleb and Anne (Boone) Stark, who came to Decatur county from Kentucky in 1826 and settled in Clay township. Caleb Stark was the son of Joseph Stark, who was the son of John Stark, a native of New Hampshire, who moved from that state to Virginia and later to Kentucky, settling in Henry county. Joseph Stark was a well-known Indian fighter and a member of the famous colony headed by Daniel Boone. He came from Virginia to Kentucky in 1780. The Stark family dates from the days of the last James in Scotland, when John Muirhead, a German soldier, for an act of bravery in which he saved the life of the king, was created bishop of Glasgow and his name changed by royal decree to Stark, which is the German for "strength." John Stark, who was born in 1665, was the founder of the Stark family in America, he having come to this country in 1710. His eldest son, Archibald, was the father of General Stark of Revolutionary fame. The remainder of the Stark genealogy may be found in the sketch of Caleb Stark Wright, recorded elsewhere in this volume. He is a cousin of Wilbur Boone Wright, the subject of this sketch. . . ."

In his email dated May 6, 2006, Mike Jones enclosed a copy of the biography of Wilbur Boone Wright from History Of Decatur County, Indiana, Its People, Industires And Institutions, by Lewis A. Harding, published in 1915, which stated as follows:

"Wilbur Boone Wright was born in 1871, the son of John and Luvenia (Stark) Wright, pioneers of Clay township, the former of whom was born in Rockbridge county, Virginia, in 1827 and who died at his home in Decatur county in 1899. When about twenty-one years of age, John Wright came to Decatur county from Virginia and settled in Clay township near Liberty. The Wright family is of English origin. John Wright was the son of Charles Wright, who came to this county from Virginia some time after his son, John and located here. Luvenia Stark was the daughter of Caleb and Anne (Boone) Stark, who came to Decatur county from Kentucky in 1826 and settled in Clay township. Caleb Stark was the son of Joseph Stark, who was the son of John Stark, a native of New Hampshire, who moved from that state to Virginia and later to Kentucky, settling in Henry county. Joseph Stark was a well-known Indian fighter and a member of the famous colony headed by Daniel Boone. He came from Virginia to Kentucky in 1780. The Stark family dates from the days of the last James in Scotland, when John Muirhead, a German soldier, for an act of bravery in which he saved the life of the king, was created bishop of Glasgow and his name changed by royal decree to Stark, which is the German for "strength." John Stark, who was born in 1665, was the founder of the Stark family in America, he having come to this country in 1710. His eldest son, Archibald, was the father of General Stark of Revolutionary fame. The remainder of the Stark genealogy may be found in the sketch of Caleb Stark Wright, recorded elsewhere in this volume. He is a cousin of Wilbur Boone Wright, the subject of this sketch.

Born on his father's farm in Clay township, Wilbur Boone Wright was only a small child when the family moved from Clay township to Adams township. Here he grew to manhood and lived and worked on his father's farm. He began business for himself when seventeen years old drilling gas wells under contract. He has been eminently successful in this business and has drilled wells in most of the counties of central Indiana, also in Texas and Illinois. There is no man now living in the state of Indiana, who is more familiar with this business than the subject of this sketch.

Wilbur Boone Wright was first married to Pearl Coy, of Adams, but she died a little less than two years after their marriage. About two years after her death, Mr. Wright was married, secondly, to Ada Boling, of Franklin county, Indiana. She is the sister of Albert Boling, whose sketch is contained elsewhere in this volume and which contains the genealogy of the Boling family in Decatur county and in this country. To Mr. and Mrs. Wright has been born one child, Luvenia Alice, who was born on August 5, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright have a beautiful home in Adams, where he is known as one of the solid and substantial citizens of Decatur county. He is a stanch and true Democrat and a member of the Christian church of Adams. Mr. Wright is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, including the Encampment and the Rebekahs. He is also a member of Masonic Lodge, No. 94, of Milford. A top-notch citizen, a liberal and broad-minded man, he is one of whom this county has every reason to be proud."

D. Jane (Wright) Waters, Her Husband John Waters, And Her Descendants

Jane (Wright) Waters was a daughter of William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County) and ____ (____) Wright. (William[1])

The marriage record of Jane Wright, daughter of William Wright, and John Waters was dated on December 22, 1806, at Bedford County, Virginia, with John Baughan as surety:

"This is to certify that I William Wright of Bedford County have given my concent that the said John Waters may appy unto the Clark of Bedford Cort For Licence to marry my daughter Jane Wright, as witness my Hand this 22d 1806

John Baughan Wm Wright
Issu License

Know all men by these presents that we John Waters & John Baughan are held & firmly bound unto Wm H Cabell Governor Or chief Magistrate of the CommonWealth of Virginia in the Sum of One hundred & fifty Dollars lawful money of virginia to be paid to the said Governor or to his Successors for the use of the CommonWealth to which payment well & truly to be made we find Ourselves our Heirs &c firmly by these presents sealed with our Seals & dated this 22d. day of December 1806

The Condition of the above obligation is such that Whereas there is a marriage Shortly intended to be had & Solemized between the above bound John Waters & Jane Wright

Now if there shall be no lawful cause to Obstruct the said marriage then the above Obligation to be void, else to remain in full force & virtue

Signed & acknowd John Waters
In the presence of John Baghan"

The Baughan family was associated with the family of William Wright, Sr. (Bedford County) in various business and legal transactions set forth above. If Jane (Wright) Waters was at least 16 years of age when she married, her date of birth would be probably before 1791. Given the marriage date of William Wright, Jr. (Bedford County) in 1788, it is possible that Jane (Wright) Waters was his daughter, but it seems more probable that she was older than 16 when she married and, therefore, would be more probably the daughter of William Wright, Sr. Further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The 1820 Census for Union District, South Carolina, listed Jno. Waters with the following household:

S/318 Mary Waters, John Waters, Thomas Waters, Moses Waters, James Waters, Betsy Waters, Ann Waters, Sally Waters, Christiana Waters, and Fanny Waters joined to sell to Nicholas Corry the 130 acres of land

"whereon our Mother now lives" and that this represented the sale of the family's South Carolina land in anticipation of their move to Georgia.

Waters Family History stated that Jane (Wright) Waters died shortly after arriving in Georgia and was buried on the bluff over-looking the Chattahoochy River and the grave was later moved to Gilsville Cemetery. However, as will be set forth below, the last child of Jane (Wright) Waters was born in about 1829, so her death must have occurred over four years after their move to Hall County, Georgia.

Waters Family History included a transcription of a deed dated December 5, 1828, and recorded in Hall County, Georgia, by which John Waters sold to his sisters Elizabeth Waters, Ann Waters, Sally Waters, and Christiana Waters his 190 acres of land for their lives or until marriage with the remainder to his son James Waters:

The 1860 Census for Hall County, Georgia, listed Bunavesta Waters in the Moses Waters household on June 2, 1860, and her age as 3 and born in Georgia, indicating a date of birth in about 1857.

The 1870 Census for Hall County, Georgia, listed Vista Waters in the Jane Waters household on June 13, 1870, and her age as 12 and born in Georgia, indicating a date of birth in about 1858.

Waters Family History included a transcription of an estate record for the estate of John W. Waters, son of John Waters, recorded at Talladega County, Alabama, Book N/564 which listed Vesta (Waters) as a child of Moses Waters, deceased:

> "John W. Waters deceased March 28, 1880; wife Elizabeth A. Butterworth, no children; Survivors: Brothers, Sisters and neices and nephews. Also list neices and nephews in Hall County, Georgia and also Talladega County, Alabama.
> . . . .
> Children of Moses Waters; deceased brother of John W. Waters. All are now in Talladega County, Alabama.
> . . . .
> 3. Vesta Waters, daughter of Moses Waters, married John Suddath."

Waters Family History stated that Buna V. (Waters) Suddath was a daughter of Moses Waters and Nancy (Ward) Waters and was born in 1857 in Hall County, Georgia.

The combination of Buna V. and Vesta for her name suggest strongly that her name was Buena Vista Waters.

d. Mary Arvarilla Or Ava (Waters) Hulsey And Her Husband ____ Hulsey

Mary Arvarilla (Waters) Hulsey was a daughter of Moses Waters and Mary Jane (____) Waters. (William[1], Jane[2], Moses[3])

The 1860 Census for Hall County, Georgia, listed Mary Waters in the Moses Waters household on June 2, 1860, and her age as 1 and born in Georgia, indicating a date of birth in about 1859.

The 1870 Census for Hall County, Georgia, listed Ava Waters in the Jane Waters household on June 13, 1870, and her age as 9 and born in Georgia, indicating a date of birth in about 1861.

Waters Family History stated that Mary Arvarilla (Waters) Hulsey was a daughter of Moses Waters and Nancy (Ward) Waters and was born in 1859 in Hall County, Georgia.

Waters Family History also stated that Ada Waters was a fifth child of Moses Waters and Nancy (Ward) Waters and born in 1861 in Hall County, Georgia, but this was probably a reference to the 1870 Census record and that listing was probably for Mary Avarilla Waters using the shortened form of Ava for her name.
